

"You have to fight and keep fighting even if only defeat is predictable"

"Criticism must be made in time; do not be carried away by the bad habit of criticizing only after the facts have been consumed"

"All imperialists are paper tigers, they look powerful but actually they are not so much, it is the people who are really powerful"

"Making the revolution is not offering a banquet, nor painting a picture; it cannot be so elegant, so paused and fine." A revolution is an insurgency, an act of violence by which one class overthrown another

"The worst enemy of the revolution is the bourgeois that many revolutionaries carry inside"

Mao Tse Tong.
